Customer Reviews

I bought this for the cool centerfold: an entire redwood, with five people climbing at various heights. I put it up in my son's room, since he's crazy about redwoods. The text is for an adult, but the pictures are lovely and great for kids.

The magazine was in pretty good condition, a little sun damaged and had obviously been read through a few times. The poster was well intact, which was the most important thing for me. I lost my copy of this issue and wanted a replacement so I could put the poster up next to the giant sequoia poster. Looks great.

This item arrived right after I ordered it and I was very impressed with the condition of it. It was like new and not even bent at all. I am very pleased with the seller and would recommend this seller to anyone--they are reliable and timely!

It was in very good condition for being five years old. The magazine didn't even appear to be read since it made the news

This was the most amazing National Geographic with the tallest and largest trees in the nation within. Awesome!!!
